Assignment-2

---

1. What is the Difference between UI and UX? Explain in Your word.

Ans. UX stands for User Experience and UI stands for User Interface. UX is what a user of a particular product experiences when using that product. The process include development, improvement, of quality interaction between a user and all precious product of a company. UX design improves the overall experience a user has with a company's products or services. UI design is the process, that designers use to build interfaces in software or computerized devices, focusing on looks or style. It is developing and improving the quality of interaction between user and software.

2. Who is a Frontend developer? Explain the roles and responsibilities in your own words.

Ans. A frontend developer builds the front-end portion of websites and web application. Frontend developer work on the part that is actually users see and interact with it. A frontend developer use HTML, CSS, JavaScript and create the websites and applications.

3. Who is Backend developer? Explain the roles and responsibilities in your own words.

Ans. Backend developer works on the server-side portion, which focuses on everything you can't see on a website. Backend developers ensure the website performs correctly, focusing on databases, back-end logic, APIs and servers.

4. Create your own GitHub and Linkedin accounts…….

Ans.

GitHub link :- https://github.com/Vikash-Sharma-17

Linkedin link :- https://www.linkedin.com/in/vikash-sharma-942103231/

5. Write your first blog….

Ans.

Link :- https://vikashsharma17.hashnode.dev/first-blog